WEIGHT	3 kg jar

Black Kalamata olives from Greece

DESCRIPTION	Kalamata olives, collected by hand in the Peloponnese Peninsula
APPEARANCE	Vivid purple-black color, elongated shape and juicy pulp
TASTE	Complex, intense and aromatic, sweet and savory; the pulp is firm and juicy at the same time
PRODUCER	Maniterra - Kalamata - Greece
OUR SELECTION	Kalamata olives are the most renowned greek olives; we have choosen the olives by Maniterra which are collected strictly by hand in Sparta area and selected directly by the farmers, without intermediaries
CURIOSITY	There are basically three types of olives in Greece: the round Conservolia olives (green and black) produced in the north and in the west of Greece; the large Halkidiki Olives (green and black) produced in the northern part of Greece and finally Kalamata olives (only black) produced in the southern part of Peloponnese Peninsula
SUGGESTIONS	Delicious as aperitif, excellent in the classic Greek salad (horiatiki), prepared with olives, tomatoes, cucumber, onion and feta; perfect to give a different touch to pizza
