Very fine honey aroma and delicate floral scent of Lavender. It has a very persistent medium sweet taste that grows with the finish.

PRODUCER

Apicoltura Cazzola - Altedo (BO) - Emilia Romagna

CURIOSITY

To get different botanical origin of honey, Pierpaolo and Fabrizio move the beehives in various areas, following the different blooms. This is referred as 'nomadism' and, as with other agricultural activities, weather conditions play a crucial role. That's why the characteristics and the availability of these honeys may vary depending on the year. The families are moved only during the night, in order to be positioned at sunrise on the harvest field

SUGGESTIONS

Perfectly paired with Montasio cheese, Pecorino or Fiore Sardo
