Indian Black Pepper pleasant and intense aroma

DESCRIPTION	Indian Black Pepper pleasant and intense aroma
APPEARANCE	The berry is black, wrinkled, with reddish highlights
TASTE	Pungent and aromatic
PRODUCER	Petit Lorien - Udine (UD) - Friuli Venezia Giulia
CURIOSITY	Pepper, Piper nigrum , is a spice produced from a perennial tree of the Piperaceae family native to southern India. The ripe fruits, 5 mm diameter berries gathered in bunches on long spikes, are harvested to be used in culinary culture all over the world and in the medical practices of Ayurveda, traditional Indian medicine. Depending on the state of ripeness and the treatment to which the fruits are subjected, different varieties of pepper are obtained: black, white or green
SUGGESTIONS	Great on the first and grilled meat
