Thick and creamy yoghurt with honey and royal jelly, made with local milk

DESCRIPTION

Creamy, thick yoghurt made with fresh whole pasteurised milk from Valtellina, live lactic cultures, honey and royal jelly

APPEARANCE

It comes with honey at the bottom, naturally thick and creamy

TASTE

Sweet, rich, with light floral and resinous notes; the acidity is mitigated by the sweetness of honey

PRODUCER

Latteria di Chiuro - Chiuro (SO) - Lombardy

OUR SELECTION

The yoghurt produced by Latteria di Chiuro is made from milk sourced in Valtellina, in the heart of the Alps. The milk comes from around thirty small farms, all located within a few kilometres from the dairy: a choice that aims at contributing to the maintenance of a real and virtuous economy in mountain villages and to promote social balance. It is prepared with selected live lactic cultures, respecting the natural acidification times of the milk. The result is a yoghurt rich in protein and calcium, with a creamy and delicate texture

SUGGESTIONS

Perfect to enjoy on its own for a rich and varied breakfast
