PRODUCER	BioAlberti - Poggio Aquilone (TR) - Umbria
OUR SELECTION	BioAlberti is an agricultural company, entirely organic, immersed in the rolling Umbrian hills in the locality of Poggio Aquilone and extends over an area of 560 hectares between the province of Perugia and the province of Terni
CURIOSITY	The pearl barley produced by BioAlberti in Poggio Aquilone is a cereal rich in beneficial, restorative, digestive, emollient and refreshing properties; it has a high fiber content, and a low glycemic content
SUGGESTIONS	With toasted notes it is ideal for risotto and finger food by the glass, perhaps with shrimp and sautéed vegetables. It does not require soaking, therefore about 50 minutes of cooking are sufficient
