A sheet of Fiordilatte mozzarella ready to use

| DESCRIPTION | A sheet of traditional Fiordilatte mozzarella obtained only from cow's milk from the Murge, an Apulian plateau |
|---------------|---|
| APPEARANCE | It comes in a roll, white in colour and with a fine structure: the thin texture of the stretched curd can be glimpsed even with the naked eye |
| TASTE | Delicate, with notes of cream and fresh milk |
| PRODUCER | Caseificio Olanda - Andria (BA) - Puglia |
| OUR SELECTION | A product designed ad hoc for catering: the Caseificio Olanda has developed this low watery recipe in order to be tire up by hand on bruschettas and pizzas |
| CURIOSITY | The Caseificio Olanda processes an average of 50 quintals of milk (compared to the industry which processes 30 times as much) coming exclusively from two stables from the Murgia, a plateau in the Apulian hinterland particularly suited to grazing and dairy cattle breeding |
| SUGGESTIONS | Perfect on pizza jutst tore up by hand, in sandwiches or to make classic summer rolls |
