Whole 2-gauge Violet artichoke hearts grown in Puglia

DESCRIPTION

Violet artichoke hearts caliber 2 worked from fresh and without tanning aromas, preserved in a blend of olive oil and sunflower

APPEARANCE

The artichoke is whole, well cleaned and immersed in oil, has a medium-bodied consistency not too crisp or too soft

TASTE

Characteristic of artichoke, pleasantly vegetable and clean; with an acetic push not too intrusive

PRODUCER

Azienda Agricola Fratepietro - Cerignola (FG) - Puglia

OUR SELECTION

Agricola Fratepietro is a young and dynamic farm located in the countryside of Cerignola, among olive groves. Andrea and his wife Valentina bring a fresh project, attentive to the environment and closely linked to the territory, to not only enhance the Bella di Cerignola, but also other vegetable delicacies that the earth gives them

SUGGESTIONS

Perfect for a shot or on a crust, as an aperitif or over a high focaccia
