Chickpeas grown organically by the BioAlberti company

DESCRIPTION	Organic hulled chickpeas of sultan variety
APPEARANCE	Peeled and broken beige-yellow seeds, thin skin
TASTE	Delicate flavour
PRODUCER	BioAlberti - Poggio Aquilone (TR) - Umbria
OUR SELECTION	BioAlberti is an agricultural company, entirely organic, immersed in the rolling Umbrian hills in the locality of Poggio Aquilone and extends over an area of 560 hectares between the province of Perugia and the province of Terni
CURIOSITY	The peeled chickpea of Poggio Aquilone without the cuticle is lighter, more digestible and quick to cook as it does not need to be soaked.
SUGGESTIONS	Ideal for soups, creams and salads; whole: 12 hours of soaking, 1 hour and a half of cooking; shelled: they do not require soaking, cooking times are around 45 minutes
